AmateurPianists Brings Outstanding Local Talent to Solana Beach

Tuesday, July 1, 2014

SOLANA BEACH, CA—On Saturday, July 26, 2014, a devoted group of accomplished local talented pianists will be performing at Founders' Hall (1036 Solana Drive) to share their love of classical piano music. This recital will feature a free program of works by such diverse composers as J.S. Bach, Chopin, Brahms, Mozart, and more.

What makes this recital special is that there will be a silent auction to raise funds to create San Diego's first international amateur piano competition.

The silent auction begins at 1pm and the recital starts at 2pm.

AmateurPianists was founded in 2011 to provide opportunities for adults to perform in front of a live audience. Since its formation, membership has grown to over 430. Membership is free, and recitals are held at various venues—from recital halls and libraries to churches and private homes.

The group also provides educational opportunities, such as hosting masterclasses and lectures. For more information on this worthy organization, please visit www.AmateurPianists.org.
