

ABOUT AMATEURPIANISTS

AmateurPianists welcomes you to “Open Piano” night at the San Diego Repertory Theatre. We are pleased to have you join us tonight before the show of Steal Heaven in celebration of San Diego’s outstanding amateur pianists.

Since our formation in February 2011, we have held over 40 events, including recitals, masterclasses, and lectures. Some of our past highlights have included an engaging lecture on mastering the playing of Schumann, a beautiful recital on “Sacred Music for the Keyboard,” two programs of original compositions, a recital devoted to women composers, and recitals by outstanding amateur pianists Thomas Maurice (Maryland) and Jeremias Mameghani (Germany). We have exciting events planned for this year, including a lecture/recital featuring music from four genres of classical music (Baroque, Classical, Romantic, and Impressionistic on Friday, January 16, a celebration of music by J.S. Bach on March 29, and more. We listen to our members! If you have an idea for a recital or lecture topic, please let one of our board members know, or contact us through our website: AmateurPianists.org.

Our mission is threefold: to provide opportunities for piano performance, to educate through masterclasses and lectures, and to host an international piano competition here in our beautiful city of San Diego.

AmateurPianists endeavors to provide an enjoyable and supportive atmosphere for piano enthusiasts, bridging performers with San Diego audiences. Thank you to our 520 members who have attended (and performed at) our events. For those who are joining us for the first time today, welcome! Please visit us at AmateurPianists.org for more information and follow us on Facebook, Twitter, and Youtube. AmateurPianists is a nonprofit, tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organization. Donations are tax deductible.
